The Baptism of the Lord

Reflections From the Pastor

*You are my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased.
- Luke 3.22*

Today the Church brings to an end the celebration of Christmas with the Baptism of the Lord. It is in this moment one hears a voice from the heavens affirming that Jesus is the one sent by God to redeem the nations. But He is not merely another prophet, He is more. He is the Son of God sent from the Father to redeem humanity. The Lord God in the prophet Isaiah (42.1-4) identifies Jesus as the Servant of God: “Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit; He shall bring forth justice to the nations.”

Last Sunday in celebrating the feast of the Epiphany the Church noted that Jesus was not simply savior to the house of Israel but to all the nations. As Peter says in Acts: “I see that God shows no partiality” (10:34). The Magi represent the nations of the world. The word epiphany means revelation, that which was unknown or understood becomes known or manifested. Unfortunately, the understanding of for whom the Messiah is sent became narrowed. Israel lost a sense of her vocation to be God’s instrument of salvation (Mosaic Covenant). It had become parochial in its vision of redemption. The Epiphany reveals the catholicity of the mission of the Messiah: He shall bring forth justice to the nations (Isaiah 42:2).

Some may question why, if Jesus is God, He submits to being baptized by John. After all He was not subject to original sin. Reflecting upon this feast, it would seem that it highlights a deeper sense of what baptism is about. Not to deny the matter of original sin, I think sometimes our understanding of Baptism has been reduced to the removal of original sin. Keep in mind that the concept of original sin comes from St. Augustine responding to Arius’ claim that man in and of himself could be saved. What Jesus did was not necessary for our salvation – secular humanism. Baptism, then, surely reminds us that it is God’s grace that offers us the possibility of attaining goodness.

But worth noting in the scene of Jesus’ baptism the presence both of the Father and the Holy Spirit. The words spoken from the heavens reminds one that Baptism is relational. Through baptism one enters into relationship to the Father (adopted sons and daughters). The Church is the family of God into which one enters. In the early Church the relational aspect of Baptism was given great emphasis through the Catechumenate. Catechumens (usually adults) would be received into the Church after a number of years of preparation. It was on the night of one’s baptism (Easter Vigil) that one for the first time joined the community (family) for Eucharist.

One also observes the role of the Holy Spirit at the baptism of the Lord. The Spirit not only makes holy, but also empowers. The Spirit empowers the baptized to do and fulfill the mission for which one has been anointed: “The Lord has anointed me to proclaim Good News to the poor...” (Luke 4). The baptism of the Lord is not only about affirming the divinity of Jesus but also about His mission. Through Baptism we come to share both in Christ’s sonship but also his mission. We too have been anointed.

- Fr. Bill Conway

Tú eres mi Hijo amado en quien tengo complacencia.
- Lucas 3.22

Hoy la Iglesia pone fin a la celebración de la Navidad con el Bautismo del Señor. Es en este momento uno escucha una voz desde el cielo afirmando que Jesús es el enviado de Dios para redimir a las naciones. Pero no es más que otro profeta, él es más. Él es el Hijo de Dios enviado del Padre para redimir a la humanidad. El Señor Dios en el profeta Isaías (42,1-4) identifica a Jesús como el Siervo de Dios: "Aquí está mi siervo a quien sostengo, mi elegido, con el que me complace, a quien he puesto mi espíritu, Él dará a luz justicia a las naciones. "

El pasado domingo en la celebración de la fiesta de la Epifanía de la Iglesia señaló que Jesús no era simplemente salvador de la casa de Israel, sino a todas las naciones. Como Pedro dice en Hechos: "veo que Dios no hace acepción de personas" (10:34). Los Reyes Magos representan a las naciones del mundo. La palabra epifanía significa revelación, lo que se desconoce o se conoce o entiende manifestado. Por desgracia, la comprensión de para quién es el Mesías enviado se redujo. Israel perdió el sentido de su vocación de ser instrumento de salvación de Dios (Pacto Mosaico). Se había convertido en parroquia en su visión de la redención. La Epifanía pone de manifiesto la universalidad de la misión del Mesías: Él traerá justicia a las naciones (Isaías 42:2).

Algunos pueden preguntarse por qué, si Jesús es Dios, Él presenta al ser bautizado por Juan. Después de todo lo que no estaba sujeta al pecado original. Reflexionando sobre esta fiesta, parece que se pone de relieve un sentido más profundo de lo que el bautismo se trata. No para negar la cuestión del pecado original, creo que a veces nuestra comprensión del Bautismo se ha reducido a la eliminación del pecado original. Tenga en cuenta que el concepto del pecado original viene de San Agustín de responder a la demanda de Arrio que el hombre en y por sí mismo podría ser salvado. Lo que Jesús no era necesario para nuestra salvación - el humanismo secular. El bautismo, entonces, seguramente nos recuerda que es la gracia de Dios que nos ofrece la posibilidad de alcanzar la bondad.

Sin embargo, cabe destacar en la escena del bautismo de Jesús la presencia tanto del Padre y el Espíritu Santo. Las palabras pronunciadas desde el cielo nos recuerda que el Bautismo es relacional. Por el bautismo se entra en relación con el Padre (adoptado hijos e hijas). La Iglesia es la familia de Dios en el que se entra. En la Iglesia primitiva el aspecto relacional del bautismo se le dio gran énfasis a través del catecumenado. Catecúmenos (generalmente adultos) sería recibido en la Iglesia después de varios años de preparación. Fue en la noche de su bautismo (Vigilia Pascual) que uno por primera vez se unió a la comunidad (familia) para la Eucaristía.

También se observa el papel del Espíritu Santo en el bautismo del Señor. El Espíritu no sólo santifica, autoriza también. El Espíritu da poder a los bautizados a hacer y cumplir la misión para la que uno ha sido ungido: "El Señor me ha ungido para proclamar la Buena Nueva a los pobres ..." (Lucas 4). El bautismo del Señor no es sólo acerca de la afirmación de la divinidad de Jesús, sino también acerca de su misión. Por el Bautismo hemos venido a compartir tanto en la filiación de Cristo, sino también su misión. Nosotros también hemos sido ungidos.

Building Our Church Community

Setting Our Course for the Year Ahead

The Listening Sessions have been held, the results have been collated, and now it is time to share that information with the entire Divine Savior parish family.

On Monday, January 24, the needs, hopes and concerns of the members of Divine Savior will be revealed at a meeting at 7:00 p.m. in the Blessed John XXIII Pastoral Center.

As a member of the Divine Savior community of faith, you are empowered to decide how we will put our time and talents to use in meeting the needs, achieving the hopes and addressing the concerns that have been revealed over the past few months.

Please do not take your role lightly. Whether or not you participated in the Listening Sessions, your experience and insights will be valuable in shaping Divine Savior's ministries and outreach, faith formation and evangelization, celebrations and social events – all the activities we must be about as members of Christ's earthly kingdom.

Please mark your calendar now and plan on attending this important parish event on January 24, 2011.

➡ MORE DETAILS TO FOLLOW

St. Joseph Parish is pleased to partner with Divine Savior to offer the Grand Raffle for the first time!

The Raffle is a great way to generate excitement and support of our parish communities, as well as Catholic education. There are two options to enter - $50 for one ticket or $100 for three tickets - that gives you up to 20 chances to win $1,000 over a 2-month period. Proceeds support Divine Savior's and St. Joseph's ministries and parishes.

In December and January, we'll have 10 Grand Prize winners of $1,000! That's 20 $1,000 winners! Monthly drawings will be held in The St. Joseph Church Narthex at 4801 Main Street following 5 pm Mass on December 19, 2010, and at St. Joseph Trivia Night on January 22, 2011 - everyone is welcome! You don't need to be present to win. Additionally, if you sell a winning ticket, you'll be entered into a $1,000 drawing that month.

Each ticket is a $50 donation, or get THREE tickets for $100. All entrants will be added back to the Raffle for subsequent drawings, so you could win more than once! We accept cash, check or credit cards for payment (Visa, Mastercard, Discover). Please make checks payable to St. Joseph School.

Here's how to enter

Please call Matt Borgard at 630-969-3467 for tickets. You can also buy tickets at the Divine Savior Church Office, or mail to Divine Savior Church Office, Attn: Grand Raffle, 6700 Main Street, Downers Grove, IL 60516.

THIRD SUNDAY BOOK DISCUSSION

Our Third Sunday discussions will resume on January 16 with the novel, Sarah's Key, by Tatiana de Rosnay. This story of the Holocaust won rave reviews when it was published in 2008. The title is on hold at the Downers Grove Public Library. Ask for the Third Sunday selection at the circulation desk.

Please join us on January 16 at 7:00 p.m. in the church conference room for a lively discussion, and bring your suggestions for books to read in March, April and May. To register, please call Tracy O'Brien in the parish office, 630-969-1532 ext. 21.

Our title for February is Year of Wonders by Geraldine Brooks. It will be available at the DG Library circulation desk beginning January 17.

THIS IS MY BELOVED SON

This Sunday's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord closes the Christmas season. In the scriptures we see one more epiphany, or manifestation, of the Spirit of God in Jesus—but this time it is as an adult, rather than as a child. Jesus' baptism also serves as the inauguration of his prophetic mission and the messianic age.

Today's reading from Isaiah describes God's chosen Messiah, upon whom God's spirit rests. In the Acts of the Apostles Peter says that "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power" (Acts 10:38). Finally, in the proclamation from Matthew's Gospel Jesus' baptism in water goes almost unnoticed. The crucial moment comes when the Spirit of God comes upon Jesus and a voice from heaven echoes the words of Isaiah: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17).

We will be mailing statements of contributions received by December 31st, 2010 to all parishioners by the end of January. Please do not call the office as we are unable to give this information over the phone.

Christmas Collection

We would like to thank everyone for the very generous Christmas Collection of over $43,000. With these funds we will be able to catch up on some bills, such as health insurance ($36,000) and Diocesan assessment ($17,000).

We offer our sincere apologies for the problems you have been encountering with our e-giving program. The company that we have been using for the last year and a half has stopped offering the service and has transferred the process to ParishSoft. This company has a very good reputation in Church communities and we were assured the transition would be flawless. Unfortunately, this was not the case and e-contributions were only deducted for the first week in December. I have been assured they will begin the first week in January.

We will be sending out information on how to access your new account in the near future, but unfortunately except for the first week in December, no other December contributions were deducted from your account and will not be reflected in your 2010 contributions statements.

We again apologize and hope you will continue to use e-contributions in the future. If you have any questions, please contact Sue Hartig in the Parish office (630-969-1532, ext. 23) or at sue@divinesavior.net. Thank you for your understanding.

DIVINE SAVIOR'S LAY APOSTLE PRAYER GROUP

WHEN: Every second Monday of the month
WHERE: Pastoral Center
TIME: 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Every meeting starts with the Holy Rosary, offering up our families, our church, personal intentions, and our nation.

Then, we will take a scripture passage each week from the Gospel of Luke. We will ponder, reflect on the meaning together, and try to put ourselves in that Gospel scene, and ask ourselves what we might have done or said if we were present. We will see some things that will surprise us and some things that will challenge us as well. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy ends our meeting.

Come and join us as we discover God's healing touch through group prayer, scripture, and discussion.

PRAY FOR OUR

MILITARY

If you have family members currently serving in any branch of the Armed Forces overseas, we would like to include their names in our weekly bulletin so that parishioners could include them in their prayers. Please submit their names with branch of service to bulletin@divinesavior.net. Please notify us when the service person returns home.

WE PRAY FOR OUR TROOPS:

- Nicholas Leamy—Navy, Okinawa
- Greg Jablonski—Army, Iraq
- Jeremiah Curtis—Taji, Iraq
- Nicholas Zefeldt—Army, Afghanistan
- Joe Giltug—Army, Afghanistan
- Calven Ourrin—Air Force, Afghanistan
- Kristopher Bosi—Marines, Afghanistan
- David Leamy—Army, Kuwait
- Gerardo Serriteno—Army, Afghanistan

Salvation is open to all who believe in Jesus and strive to do God's will. The journey toward this begins with baptism. Through Baptism we were given new life in Christ, made members of the Church, and given the Holy Spirit. With the Holy Spirit to aid us, we stewards do our part to advance the mission of the church.
