DOME OF THE ROCK

Reflections From the Pastor

He put all things beneath His feet and gave Him as head over all things to the church that is His body.
- Ephesians 1:23

It was a warm and sunny spring afternoon. We had just finished lunch and got back on the minibus. We were going to a Palestinian neighborhood in Jerusalem. As we came into the neighborhood one could quickly see the poverty. Indeed, many Palestinians live an impoverished life in Israel. The van stopped at a little mom-and-pop grocery store. Our guide went in to speak with the owner. Soon they came out and waved us to get out of the van and walk with them down the street. About half a block down we came to a walled area that had two wooden doors. The Palestinian Muslim took out a rather large key and opened the doors. We entered a rather large and somewhat barren courtyard in the middle of which was a small domed chapel. We had come to what tradition believes to be the sight of the Ascension.

The chapel, octagonal in shape, crowned with a dome, was quite simple and unadorned. In the middle under the dome was a large rock that seemed to protrude from the floor. Tradition says that it was on this rock Jesus stood before ascending to the heavens. Each of us in the group after praying together one by one knelt to kiss the sacred stone.

Reflecting on the visit two things stood out for me. The first that a place sacred to Christians was guarded and protected by a Muslim. Like the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the keys were entrusted not to Christians, but to Muslims. Why? The answer is simple and unfortunate. The history of the Christians – Catholics and Orthodox – has been through the centuries contentious and at times violent. How Jesus must weep!

The second thing to come to mind was the hiddenness of the chapel of the Ascension. I suspect many a pilgrim visits Jerusalem without ever coming to this holy site. A place that is crucial to the Easter story lies tucked away, almost hidden from sight, in a poor Palestinian neighborhood. Once again what is the message?

In old Jerusalem if one walks to the site of the Temple, one comes to a place sacred to the Muslims. It is adjacent to the precincts of the Jewish Temple. It is the Dome of the Rock. According to the Koran the Prophet Muhammad was told to go from Mecca to Jerusalem. He was accompanied by the archangel Gabriel. When he arrived at the Mount of the Temple, he encountered Abraham, Moses and Jesus whom he led in prayer. Afterwards he ascended by golden ladder through the seven heavens where he met with Allah. After the encounter he was accompanied back to Mecca by the archangel Gabriel.

For me there is a certain irony that surfaced from my visit to both the Chapel of the Ascension and the Dome of the Rock. Both are very much linked to Islam as well as Christianity. But the Dome of the Rock stands out in its beauty, especially the brilliant gold dome. It can be seen far and wide throughout Jerusalem, while hardly anyone, Christian, Muslim or Jew, would notice the chapel of the Ascension. At the Rock of the Ascension one hears Jesus telling His disciples to go out to all the nations, proclaiming the Good News. At the other rock, the Dome of the Rock, one not only recalls the ascension of Muhammad but also his prayerful encounter with Abraham, Moses and Jesus that serves to remind all of us of our common origin and history.

The irony in all of this is that the place most sacred for all the children of Abraham – Jew, Christian, Muslim – is stained by the blood of so many because we attend not to what unites us but to what divides us. And until we come together in mutual respect and love – Jew, Christian, Muslim, no one will hear the Good News!

*El Puso todo bajo sus pies y lo hizo a EL encargado de todas las cosas para la iglesia y en Su cuerpo.
- Efesinos 1:23*

Fue una tarde calida y soleada de primavera. Acababamos de comer el almuerzo y volvimos en el microbús. Ibamos a un vecindario palestino en Jerusalén. En cuanto entramos el vecindario uno podía ver rápidamente la pobreza. Verdaderamente, muchos palestinos viven una vida empobrecida en Israel. En eso, la vagoneta hizo una parada en una tienda de abarrotes local. Nuestra guía entró a hablar con el propietario. Pronto salieron y nos hicieron señas para salir de la vagoneta y caminar con ellos calle abajo. A la mitad de una cuadra, nosotros nos encontramos con una pared que tenia dos puertas de madera. El musulmán palestino saco una llave bastante grande y abrió las puertas. En ese momento entramos a un patio bastante grande y algo árido en medio de la que fue una pequeña capilla abovedada. Nosotros habiamos llegado a lo que en tradición se cree ser la vista de la Ascensión.

La capilla, de forma octagonal, coronada con una cúpula, era bastante sencilla y sin adornos. En el centro bajo la cúpula estaba una piedra grande que pareció salir del piso. La tradición dice que Jesus se recargo en esta piedra antes de subir a los cielos. Despues de orar, cada uno de nosotros en el grupo se arrodilló para besar la piedra sagrada.

Dos cosas importantes se me quedaron grabadas sobre esta visita. Primero, que este era un lugar sagrado para los Cristianos y que era protegido por un musulmán. Como la Iglesia de la Santa Sepultura, dejo las llaves confiadas a musulmanes y no a cristianos. ¿Por qué? La respuesta es sencilla y desafortunada. La historia de los cristianos – católicos y Ortodoxo – ha estado por bastantes siglos en contencion y a veces violenta. ¡Cómo debio haber llorado Jesús!

La segunda idea que me vino a la mente fue el escondite de la capilla de la Ascension. Yo me supuse que muchos peregrinos que visitaron Jerusalem fueron sin haber visitado este sitio sagrado. Un Lugar que es crucial para la historia de la Pascua, casi escondido, en un vecindario pobre de Palestina. Una vez mas, ¿cual era el mensaje?

En el viejo Jerusalem, el lugar de este templo esta ubicado en una area sagrada para los musulmanes. Está adyacente a las zonas del Templo judío. Es la Cúpula de la Piedra. Según el Corán el Profeta Muhammad le fue dicho que tenia que ir de la Meca a Jerusalén. El fue acompañado del arcángel Gabriel. Cuando el llegó al Monte del Templo, él se encontró con Abraham, Moses y Jesús quienes lo introdujeron en la oración. Después de ahí, Muhammad subió por una escalera dorada por los siete cielos donde el se encontró con Alá. Después del encuentro, él fue acompañado de regreso hacia la Meca por el arcángel Gabriel.

Para mí, hay una cierta ironía que surgió de mi visita a ambas la Capilla de la Ascensión y la Cúpula de la Piedra. Ambas estan ligadas al Islam así como a a la cristiandad. Pero la Cúpula de los soportes de Piedra sobresalen por su belleza, especialmente la cúpula de oro brillante. Esta puede ser vista por todas partes a través de Jerusalén, mientras casi nadie, cristiano, musulmán o judío, advertirían la capilla de la Ascensión. En la Piedra de la Ascensión uno oye a Jesús diciendole a sus discípulos que salgan a todas las naciones, proclamando las buenas Noticias. En la otra piedra, la Cúpula de la Piedra, uno no sólo recuerda la ascensión de Muhammad pero también su encuentro devoto con Abraham, Moses y Jesús que sirven para recordarnos a todos nosotros de nuestro origen e historia en comun.

La ironía en todo esto consite en que el lugar mas sagrado para todos los hijos de Abraham - Judío, cristiano, musulmán – es manchado por la sangre de tantos porque asistimos no a lo que nos une, pero a lo que nos divide. ¡Y hasta que nosotros nos reunamos en el respeto y el amor mutuos – judío, cristiano, musulmán, nadie oirá las buenas Noticias!

SMALL TALK
By Rosemary Bleuher

HANDICAPS

Having survived (thank you, Jesus!) a few physical handicaps over the recent years, I was reminded of a news broadcast that I watched a while back. The topic of handicap parking came up. The news regarding the story was that police would be getting stricter with fines for those who park in these spots illegitimately. One of those interviewed was a woman who said that though she has a handicap placard, when she steps out of the car to go into a store, she is aware of passersby's judgments, as in "she doesn't look handicapped to me!" And then she said, "I'm legit. It's just that my handicap doesn't show."

All of us have handicaps. Many of our handicaps don't show, but they are there nonetheless. We look good, may be successful, maybe even financially "set" – but we are all handicapped. It could be a marriage that is difficult, living the single life, children with problems, grandchildren who are autistic or who are gravely ill -- it could be questions of faith.

I was talking to someone whose life might look perfect but of course it is not (no one's life is). Parents and grandparents now of married children, one of her children's spouses is an alcoholic and has begun drinking again. They are out of state with three small children. Pain, real pain, that doesn't show. Who would have guessed? Recently a friend sent the following:

For everyone you meet is fighting some sort of battle.

Live simply. . . Love generously. . . Care deeply. . .

Speak kindly. . . Leave the rest to God.

Handicaps – yes, we all have them. Thank God for God and finding people to listen as we experience and uncover our handicaps.

our Pastor*

FINANCE COUNCIL

Presently the Council is working on the parish budget for the coming fiscal year (July 1, 2010-June 30, 2011). A budget process is never easy, especially in these difficult economic times. What makes church budgeting more challenging is that everything is dependent on the generosity of the parish community and when economic times are difficult, there is a direct impact on the finances of the parish.

In preparing the budget, some important line items are set not by the parish Finance Council but by the Diocese of Joliet, eg. Insurances, pensions, assessments, etc. Probably few of us advert to where diocesan funding comes from. Two important sources of income for the diocese come from the Annual Ministry Appeal and the parish assessment (tax).

In the coming fiscal year Divine Savior's goal for the Ministries Appeal is $60,677. The parish assessment, based primarily on Sunday income, is $50,007. It is worth noting that the assessment for 2008-09 was $40,032 and for this present fiscal year is $45,544 (2009-10). This means that over the past three years our assessment will have increased by $10,000. Unfortunately, while the assessment has increased, Sunday revenue has not.

Another big ticket item is health insurance—something all can relate to. Thanks be to God, there is a minimal increase in the cost for the coming year. In fact, the premium for lay insurance is $1,092 per person less than two years ago.

If one considers the assessment for the coming fiscal year and divides $50,007 by 12, it means that our monthly payment will be $4,000+ or more or less $1,000 per week.

Once again, I am very grateful to everyone who gives generously in support of the parish!
